

Description

A fine example of good Italian design and craftsmanship, the Dory has proved a popular option when seeking a slightly different towel rail from the norm.

Comprising of slim, flat 50 x 10mm bars positioned on round 30mm vertical collectors, there are 4 heights and 3 widths available.

Colours range from standard white through to contemporary, textured finishes that differentiate this towel rail from standard fare.

Special 50mm central pipe connections are available on demand.
